Chairman's Message

The past twelve months has been very successful for athletes in Australia.

The highlight of the year was the Commonwealth Games, held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Australia's outstanding results were testament to the hard work by the athletes, coaches, administrators and sponsors.

Likewise the World Junior Championships provided an excellent theatre for our up and coming athletes to excel. The results were highlighted by a Gold Medal to the Junior Men's 4 X 400m Relay Team.

Domestically, the Optus Grand Prix Series garnered acclaim for the world class results from Australian and international stars. Emma George's World record in the Pole Vault in the Optus Sydney Grand Prix, along with Frankie Fredericks breaking the all-comers records in the 100m and 200m, were standouts.

Clearly the focus in the coming years will be the 1999 World Championships in Seville and the 2000 Sydney Olympics. Athletics Australia has declared that our goal is to finish the century ranked in the top five nations in the world in track and field, and much work by all parties from athletes to coaches to administrators and sponsors will go into achieving this target.

As always our sincere thanks to the sponsors of Athletics Australia. Cable & Wireless Optus, Ansett Australia, Nike, TNT and Mannatech have all provided valuable support to track and field in this country.
